American Locomotive Holds Leadership Among Industrials All Day-Rally After Bank Statement

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—There was to-day the usual Saturday absence of a money market and the almost equally usual absence of actual dealings from London. The opening was heavy and the sagging tendency continued almost throughout the session. There was more nominal sentiment and less actual change in ownership. Leading stocks declined for the most part fractionally; only a few lost over 1 per cent. Reading was among the number, yet after the close of business, looking over the whole list, remembering the tape as it struck one while watching, the average mind recurs to one stock only. That stock was as active as any. It was remarkably strong and made a high record for at least many months.

Amerian Locomotive stocks opened un-changed and ruled strong in the first few minutes. It held the leadership all day. It had a maximum gain of 3% per cent and closed substantially at the best. The preferred rose sympathetically 1% per The market railied a little after the bank statement, but closed irregular and quiet, although Locomotive and United States Cast Iron Pipe were at the best. The feature of the bond market was the unusual strength of the Mexican Central first and second in-

LANSTON MONOTYPE

Positive Assurance Said to Have Been Given by President J. Maury Dove. To Be Declared in January.

The first dividend ever declared on the stock of the Lanston Monotype Com-pany, of which J. Maury Dove is the president, will see the light of day early next year.

This statement is made upon thority of a gentleman on the friendli-est possible terms with Mr. Dove; one whose veracity cannot be called in question, and in whose presence, if not di-rectly to him, Mr. Dove gave the as-surance that the dividend will be declared at the meeting of the board of directors in January.

Inquiry regarding the purpose of the company to pay this dividend brought out the further information that the promised action of the directory is due to the representations made by several of the largest stockholders, that, in their opinion, the frequently repeated promises of a dividend ought to be kept now, because of the general good busi-Sterling exchange was dull and nominal today, with rates unchanged.
Rates for actual business closed as follows: Sixty days, 4.8180@4.815; demand, 4.8520@4.8525; cables, 4.8570@4.8575. Commachines to the Government Printing Office. These considerations are said to have been urged with so much force as to impel Mr. Dove to give the assurance of responsive favorable action on the part of the board of directors.

Just what the dividend will be has not, of course, been divulged, and it is doubtful if that point in the determination of the question has yet been reachtion of the question has yet been reached by those in authority. It is believed, however, that it will be somewhere around 4 per cent, and it is also assumed that it will become a permanent feature of the company's financial oper-

ON BAIL FOR HEARING

James O. Hudson, thirty-two years old, who was arrested Friday night by Detectives Parham and O'Brien, while trying to pass a check for $25 on a druggist at Fourteenth street and New York avenue northwest, gave bond at the First precinct station yesterday and was released for a hearing on a charge of attempting to pass a worthless check. Hudson says he is a canvasser for the Southern Industrial Company, of this city.
